HALLOWEEN at Paradox!

We started off with a dreary mist laden morning as you can see in some of the pictures.... but is that not appropriate for Halloween? The mist did not stop our diehard Halloweeners from coming out and having fun. Johnny Smith blew everyone away with his Caisson and hovering ghosts.

FROM THE PRESIDENT'S CARRIAGE

I hope everybody is ready for cold weather. The forecast is for a colder and wetter than usual winter. With that said I hope it does not bother our upcoming events. Although I would really like a white Christmas. Please try and make it to the Halloween event at Nancy's as it is always one of the best drives all year. See you all this weekend.

"Keep your Hooves on the ground." Faith

← Our fearless leader said she was riding with Beauty, while she was the beast. Penny Brandon & Amber were casting spells, as was Barbie and Wild Child the orange Oreo cookie with spider man as a passenger. Liz Patten and a friend were also weaving spells with Doc. Pat Granzzyk & Larry Worley with Blaze was back (after a long absence, Blaze that is not Pat). Blaze was the body of a spider with Pat the head, wearing red reflector lights for eyes ERIE!!!!

Jeff & I were the Red Hat Society with Precious; we picked up another red hatter (Virginia Graham one of my ceramic students) along the way. Ronald & Penny Stroupe were there not in costume, with their pair of Halfingers and a brand NEW WCC carriage (they only got it yesterday and Michelle Huff was there riding Elliot.

After our costume parade we went out on a leisurely well marked haunted trail. After that Barbie had some games planned for us. We had to see who could WALK the course the fastest with out breaking gait, then we had to have our navigator carry a glass of UN SPIKED cider while the Whips had to follow the orders given by Barbie. The one with the most cider left in the glass when we stopped was the winner. Jeff drank his before they could come check his glass!!!! I guess he wanted to start celebrating his retirement (as of today) even if the cider wasn't spiked.

OTHER HAPPENINGS....

Sunday October 11 Faith Bradshaw, Doug Prevette, Marilyn Colvin, Jeff & I went to the Yadkin Islands to ride. What a glorious day. We met for breakfast at Hardee's in Yadkinville then went on up to the East Bend Parking lot. The leaves are beautiful right now and the river wasn't running as fast or as high as we thought it would be after some of the rain we had recently. We found out the secret to mounting a REALLY BIG Percheron....Doug carries a step ladder with him! This was Precious' first time in the river (I think it was Dick's first time too). All the horses did well except for Precious trying to kick Ellie while navigating around the rocks in the river, she also wanted to climb over the rocks instead of going around them. Doug had Dick out away from the farm for the first in a while and he handled everything in stride too. Part of the trail on the Horn Creek side of the river was closed for repairs, but you could still get up to the Horn Creek parking lot using the old trail. If you have never ridden the Yadkin Islands river trail it is a real trip going through the fast moving water, there were times we felt like we were going backwards with the water rushing past us. Some WWDC members went to Martin's Auction in PA the 16th & 17th. Some were selling stuff and some buying! Nancy brought two carriages up to sell, Barbie had a bunch of stuff to sell and I ordered a new Glinkowski.... so I will be looking to sell my marathon when the new carriage arrives, sometime in January! The 16" of snow they were calling for up there by passed us. We did have LOTS of rain though, we didn't see the sun until we were at least half way home.

Subject: Pleasure Drive Date

Howdy, Everyone! I have decided to do another Pleasure drive here at the farm...(79 Pinecone Rd. off Tucker Rd.) So, mark your calendars for Nov. 7th. It is a Saturday, so you working folks can come play! Bring your minis, ponies donkeys, horses or mules and carts, wagons, or buggys and drive with us. Please bring a current coggins and $5.00 per person to help the cost of lunch. Yes, lunch will be served. Be here and ready to drive by 10:00 am.

If you will drive in the gate at the driving arena, go through the arena and park out in the front pasture. This will leave the arena open and a safe area for warming up or just playing around the cones.

There are new picnic tables under the trees at the arena and a new walk-through gate towards the house. There will be a water trough for your horses, and hose to hose them off if you want.

Hope you can come... and meet and talk with other folks that love to drive their horses. Love to see you!
