PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Rain Rain and more rain I almost think I'm back in England. I finally got to drive today (sat, after I watched the Royal wedding) Had a great time splashing thru puddles.

Next month we have the drive on the 1st Saturday and the breakfast drive on June 16th. Hope to see all of you there.

Nancy's father is doing a lot better and we hope to see him out and about soon.

Try to stay dry and cool.

DERBY/POKER EVENT & 1ST SATURDAY DRIVE, MAY 5, 2018

The event for me was split between Faith Bradshaw and Kathy Batchelor, who went out and set up the derby course and poker drive directions so that all of the members could have fun and games, May 5 2018. It turned out to be a beautiful day for a monthly event at Paradox Farm. 11 o'clock rolled around and we had tons of :-) faces waiting to have some fun at the derby on the Paradox green. Winners of the derby: we had our VFC entrance of Julie with Stella rocking it with a two minute 46 seconds, Trish of course with Precious doing her usual steller showmanship with a two minute 13 seconds go for single horse. Woody took a second in single horse with Jaden at 5:23 as he was doing schooling work with his new cart that he just refurbished. Marilyn and Laura did a written tandem exercise zipping along with great entertainment to all of us. Faith and Sierra took the big draft horses in to check first and second for the written division thanks to Tommy, Peter Steele Christine Fedderson and Michelle Nolte for showing up and giving us a hand then we had the poker drive on a beautiful trail set up by Faith and Kathy. Winners for that event were Laura Powers with a pair of queens followed by Trish & pair of Jack's. Close competition, nine questions regarding old westerns, actors and horses were the questions they had to complete in order to earn their cards. This was followed by lovely little gathering for lunch drinks and fun to survive and we talked about our future drives going to Blowing Rock, Mullet Hall and other drives that are planned. Thanks everyone for coming out having a great time see you all the first Saturday of next month (June 2nd) for fun and games.

JUNE 2ND (NEXT 1ST SATURDAY DRIVE INFO)

From Kathy
we're going to do a test for Dressage, pick any test from training to intermediate you'll be scored one time doing it, told what you can do to improve it and run and get a second score. Anyone picking training level you can have Kathy or somebody call the pattern to you while you're driving, or ride with you, and tell u the test. Then we will do a driven poker rally, with hints to the location of all the cards around the farm. Just let me know what test you like to do and I will email it to you and you can have a coffee with you at the farm.

This should be fun for everybody even if you are not into dressage. just a good form for working the horses. Bring your smile's and prepare to giggle.
