COOKIE TASTING TRIVIA DRIVE

Paradox September 14th

We had an intimate gathering of 2 carriages & 1 rider for our trail drive. As we went, we checked for damage on the trails after the 9/12 storm that ripped through Paradox. Jeff moved one small tree that I was just able to go under. Nancy had quite a few trees come down during the storm but so far none seemed to be blocking the trails or her roads. They did have one come down and it just missed their house as Joe was standing there watching through the window!

Attending were; Faith riding Oreo, Nancy driving Natiri with Lucy Spencer as a passenger, Tricia & Jeff driving Precious. Tommy & Polly showed up for the cookie tasting & Trivia (which Polly supplied, the trivia that is).

We had 5 different cookies to taste test. Polly's (store bought from Ketchie Creek Bakery) won and Nancy's Double stuffed chocolate peppermint came in second. Faith actually won the Trivia contest (supplied by Polly) but ceded to Nancy who had the next best score.

We held an impromptu meeting and discussed Faith trying to book Lone Hickory for February & March but she can't get anyone to return her calls at the moment. I will host an event at Paradox October 19th. Faith told us, Woody has volunteered his home for our December 1st Christmas Party.

Tommy has volunteered to host an event at TLC Farm, December 7th. We are still waiting for Pat to decide what day in November works for him to host an event.

We talked about our insurance and have questions Bev or I need to get answers to.

1. If only WWDC members show up do we still need to have coverage at an event? Today we had 7 people and only 1 was a non-member who rode on Nancy's carriage.
  - a. If ONLY members attend can we get a refund for that event after the fact?
2. Is there a "Base Price" we can pay and a minimum # of events to list then just add events as needed? (We had so many cancelled events this year due to weather, for which we did get a refund.

Here is the response:

Hey Tricia,

Typically if you advertise an event it's considered a public event. If only members are there, we do not have to count it as a public event. But if one non-member is there, even as a spectator it becomes a public event.

Since you also insure tack and the minimum premium for NC is $300 with Travelers you really only have room premium wise for 1.5 event within the minimum. So no, not really. The carrier requires that a premises liability charge be made to cover where ever the events are taking place and they are not charging for any additional insured's we have listed. Chubb's minimum was $500 with a certain number included but that was only like 4 or 5.

Anytime an event is rained out/changed/cancelled and such, I need to know that. I really appreciate being on your distribution list, that helps tremendously! Attached is my current chart of your events, that's how I keep track.

Someone sent me info (Facebook or an e-mail?) about trails, camping and stabling (I thought it was for the Waltham Moss Foundation) but I cannot find the info. I thought I had saved it to look at later. Nancy found something online about Wemouth? Woods which is at or near the foundation.

Whoever sent me the info, could you please send it again, I would really appreciate it, especially if this is another place we can go to drive, camp & board the horses.

Anybody know what kind of spider this is that hitchhiked a ride on my shoulder?
