FAITH'S BIRTHDAY ADVENTURE!

May 9th, 2020

"Chivalry is still alive, there are still knights in shining armor!"

Faith wanted to celebrate her birthday with a ride at Walthour Moss Foundation. She packed a picnic lunch of roast beef sandwiches, chips, cookies & drinks for all of us, (Kathy, Nancy, Faith & I).

I met them at the farm and transferred Fancy to Nancy's trailer and we took off about 8:45am. We made it to the other side of Lexington when Nancy's truck decided it couldn't make it up a hill. Mind you last week after riding over at Tanglewood she had a serpentine belt go and lost all her power steering and power brakes on the way home, but that had been repaired. A very nice State Trooper stopped to see if we needed assistance, but Nancy informed him she had already called Antonio to come to the rescue. A bit later Antonio shows up with Kathy's truck plus another. Antonio swiftly changed out Nancy's truck for Kathy's and we were off again while Antonio took care of Nancy's truck.

A while later Faith noticed a car along side of us kept pointing to the trailer, so Kathy pulls over and low and behold we now have a flat tire! Nancy had almost all of the lug nuts loosened when our first knight stopped to see if we needed help. Nancy said ok, He said he would go get us some help.....we all kind of looked at each other.... HUH??? He was joking. He pulled in front of us then proceeded to change the trailer tire for us.

We finally made it to Walthour Moss Foundation and unloaded the horses and had a fantastic ride. The day was absolutely perfect for riding. We did manage to get a bit lost, saw some riders and Kathy decided to go ask them how to get back to Fire Lane 2 where we parked. Bo Jangles has gotten very attached to Pepsi (Kathy's Mule) and wanted to follow, but Nancy didn't want him to. I was holding back since Faith and Oreo were having a discussion about going forward (Oreo didn't want to). After a bit of a scuffle we though Nancy had Bo settled but at the last minute dumped her and took off to be with Pepsi. It didn't help that her saddle was loose and the stirrups to long. Our next TWO knights and Kathy returned with Bo and followed us to a tree where Nancy could mount Bo. Nancy slipped on a branch and fell backwards while Bo decided to take off again, stepping on her as he passed over her. Again, Bo was returned to Nancy and one of our knights helped Nancy to get back in saddle.

We finally made it back to the trailer and had our picnic lunch, loaded the horses and returned home with no more adventurous incidents.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY Faith. Nancy hope you are not too bruised up tomorrow.

NOTE: The address at the beginning of this story is the parking lot where we can unload carriages and get to the trails. Faith knows where the key is to the gate.
